

Paper "Fortune Teller" Game for "The Greatest Commandment" - Matthew 22:34-46

You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind.
Matthew 22:37 What does it mean to love God and love neighbor? That's your challenge right now!
Make an origami fortune teller below. Grab a partner to play. What does love in action look like? Read
John 21:15-17 to find out what Jesus had in mind.

Directions to make:

Write one of the actions below under each large folded triangle.

Write a number on each triangle.

Color these squares a different color.

Actions:

What's the name of a neighbor?

Name one of three things you can use to love God.

Name one idea to help a neighbor.

Name three countries.

Name the neighbor's dog.

Name a word for God (besides "God").

Name what Jesus meant for "love in action". (John 21:15-17)

What do you like about the person with whom you are playing this game?

Directions for play:

1. Place your thumbs and index fingers into the four flaps. Your partner chooses one of the colors. Spell out that color while moving your thumbs and index fingers back and forth in alternating directions.

2. Your partner chooses one of the numbers. Count to that number while moving your thumbs and index fingers back and forth in alternating directions.

3. Your partner chooses another number. Open the large triangle and ask your partner to answer the question that's written underneath the flap.
