

Sitting at the Feet of Jesus

In today's Bible story, Martha scurried around the house cooking and cleaning while her sister Mary simply sat at the feet of Jesus. This is what Jesus wants us to do: to simply sit with him and have a relationship with him. Since we can't literally sit at the feet of Jesus, what do you think this means? What are some parts of worship today that would count as "sitting at the feet of Jesus."

In the space below, write or draw pictures of the parts of today's worship where you're sitting at Jesus' feet and building your relationship with him.

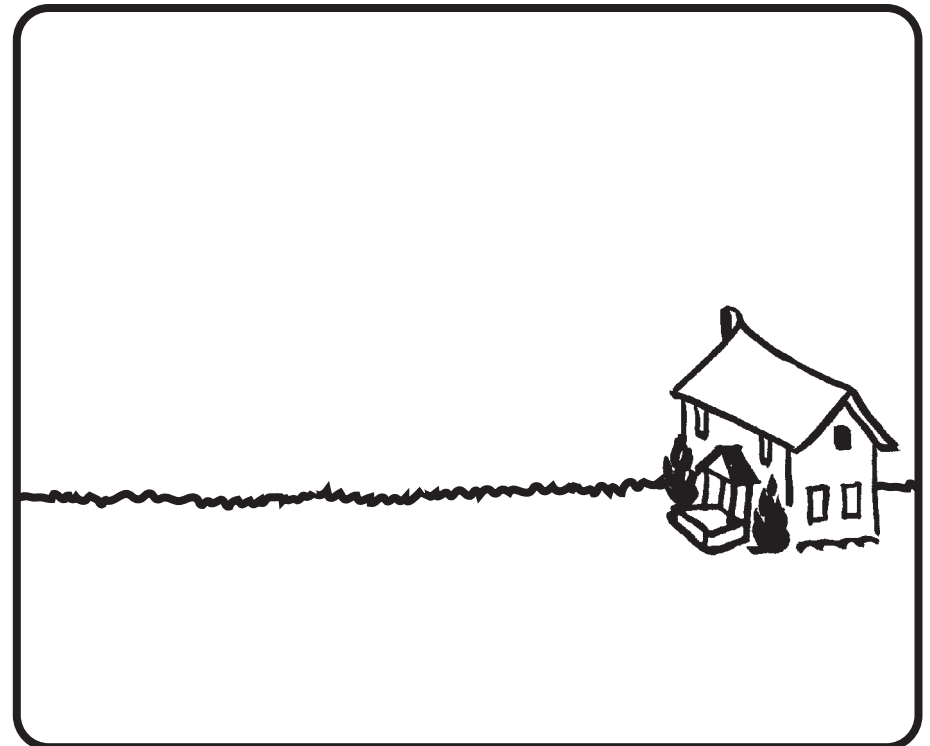

READER

Pentecost 6

- Today is the sixth Sunday after Pentecost.
- Pentecost is a season for our relationship with Jesus to grow.
- During Pentecost, we remember the importance of sitting at the feet of Jesus.

Beautifying the Backyard

You just moved into a new house and the backyard really needs some work. You have four trees, three small bushes, one swingset, and two flower pots. Arrange them to make your yard look beautiful!

In today's story, Jesus tells Martha to stop with all the cooking and cleaning. He tells her that she only needs to do one thing: come be with him. What is not needed at this dinner table? Cross off all the unnecessary things you see.

Memory Verse

Look It Up!

Did you know that Mary and Martha were friends of Jesus who appeared a few other times throughout the Bible? Look up John 11:1—12:11 to read more about these two sisters. Can you find out the name of their brother?

Mary and Martha's brother's name was _____

How Do YOU Get Ready?

In order to prepare for Jesus and his disciples to come over for dinner, Martha frantically cooked and cleaned all day long. She didn't even stop preparing when her guests arrived! What do you do to get ready for guests at your house? In these scenes below, add food and decorations to get your home ready.

